CLAIRVOYANT—DE-WITT T. COURTNEY.

The most eminent, accurate and reliable clairvoyant in the world has permanently located in your city, and if you are in doubt or trouble call and see him. He gives advice upon all affairs of life—Love, Law, Marriage, Divorce, Mining, Real Estate and changes of all kinds. One visit will convince you of the powers of this wonderful man, and that you can obtain happiness, contentment, and success through following his advice. $60.00 Central Avenue. Rooms 5 and 6. Hours, 8 to 11 a.m., 2 to 5 p.m. Phone 749.

will be a charge of fifteen cents for refreshments, including ice cream and cake.

Six car loads of picnickers from Gallup, went to the Zuni mountains yesterday on a special train, spending the day in the hills about Zuni.

James Stauffer, proprietor of the Parisian millinery parlor, died yesterday morning at his home in this city. Funeral arrangements will be made later.

Mrs. Eller, wife of Dr. Charles A. Eller, arrived with her family Saturday night from Bloomington, Indiana, where they have been visiting for the past month.

Henry Heflin, one of Roswell's rising young attorneys, and a member of the firm of Richardson, McClane and Heflin, arrived last night and will remain in Albuquerque several days.

Mrs. Elsie Letarte has returned to the city after spending several months visiting relatives in Chicago, and has resumed her position as assistant chief operator at the Colorado Telephone office.

Captain W. N. McGugin has resigned from the Water company and will associate himself with the competing Air Vacuum Housecleaning company. H. F. Bogh, recently with the United States marshal's office, is now with the Water company.

E. E. Norton, who has been for some time past the efficient and accommodating night clerk at the Alvarado hotel, has resigned his position and accepted a more lucrative one with the Pullman company at El Paso. Mr. Norton's successor will arrive tonight from La Junta.

Ensure in the Occidental Life. United States District Attorney D. J. Leahy arrived in the city last night from Santa Fe.

Nellie B. Field, returned yesterday from a short visit to his summer residence on the Pecos.

J. H. McFarland, Santa Fe officer from Helen, was a visitor here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Connely were visitors in the city yesterday from Los Lunas.

Robert Price and Glover May have returned from a two weeks' vacation spent on the Pecos.

Miss Marguerite Shoemaker, millionaire of the Economist, has left for a short visit with friends in Kansas City.

Jacob Gainesley and daughter, Miss Juanita, have returned from a three weeks' visit to the Jones Springs.

If you are great of cooking, call at the San Jose Market and buy cooked roast beef, or roast pork, potato salad, baked beans.

George S. Ramsey, traveling representative in the southwest of the Morning Journal, arrived in the city last night.

Henry Esslinger, the traveling man, arrived from Willard yesterday morning and left for the south on No. 9 last night.

Dr. L. G. Rice left last night for Pena Blanca, on a professional visit, and will return to the city this evening.

Ruford Anderson, timekeeper at the Santa Fe offices, leaves this morning for a two weeks' vacation trip to Chicago.

On Tuesday evening, August 4, the Three G. class of the Presbyterian Sunday school will give a social. No admission will be charged but there Duncan McGillivray, the well known Estancia valley sheepman, arrived in the city last night to remain a few days on business. Mr. McGillivray reports that crops, especially corn and potatoes, are doing splendidly in the valley. He has leased a large tract of land northwest of Grant's station and will ship sheep from Encino, by rail to Grant's, trailing them to the new pasture.

M. M. Padgett, editor and manager of the Las Vegas Optic, arrived in Albuquerque last night and spent the night here mingling with political leaders. Mr. Padgett will return home this morning. He is making the Optic a force in the political affairs of northern New Mexico, and is leading in the victorious fight for the nomination of Charles A. Spies for delegate to congress on the republican ticket.

At the Crystal theater tonight, the attractions will be Eddie Black, the laughable farmer boy with the educated feet, and Violette and Professor Ools in their wonderful ritual telepathy demonstrations. There will also be two reels of brand new moving pictures and a new illustrated song. Violette, especially, is the wonder of modern times and can be seen but three more days in Albuquerque. The public is invited to bring its ears and curious minds and other objects and have her describe them from the stage while blindfolded.

The moving picture program at the Skating Rink this week promises to be one of the best ever shown in this city. The "Hand of Fate" is a series of pictures laid in Montana, and dealing with cowboy life. "Magnetic Vapor" is an account of how a hen-pecked husband resorted to "the magnet" in order to manage his refractory wife, and what came of it. "The Minor's Daughter" is a western story of fraud, robbery and final justice, brought about by the nerve of a minor's daughter. "A Tiresome Play," "Circumstantial Evidence," "An Innocent Victim," and other films, some serious and some amusing, assist in making this week's performance one of the best yet shown at the rink.

How to Avoid Appendicitis. Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Foley's Orino Laxative cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels, and restores the natural action of the bowels. Foley's Orino Laxative does not nauseate or gripes and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes—Sold by J. H. O'Reilly.
